Update on Cornish Foodbanks (3). 17.04.20

Cornish foodbanks remain open and crucially need our support.

Foodbanks across Cornwall need supplies of all tinned, dried or long-life food items - with a typical food parcel including: Breakfast cereal, long-life milk, soup, pasta, rice, pasta sauce, tinned beans, tinned meat, tinned vegetables, tinned fruit, tinned puddings, tea or coffee, sugar, biscuits and snacks. Many of the foodbanks also collect: Baby food, baby milk, disposable nappies, washing up liquid, Washing Powder, soap, Dry Dog Food, canned Dog Food and canned Cat Food.

The way each Cornish foodbank runs is very unique, depending on volunteers, the building they operate, their capacity, their community and their opening times. If you would like to donate and support your local foodbank, we have included links to some of the foodbanks below, we have purposely included references to their Facebook pages where possible. If you could help your foodbank by looking at their Facebook posts before contacting them, that would be super helpful as these often have the most up to date answers to many queries. Facebook posts will also have details of any emergency financial donation appeals individual foodbanks are running, or for some foodbanks with websites, there is often a direct link to donate money to them.

PLEASE NOTE: The mission of Foodbanks is to give out food parcels to people in need. Customers can access foodbanks with a food voucher. Many of the Foodbanks are now operating an e-voucher system but please check how your local Foodbank is operating.

There are many wonderful community food projects that people without Foodbank vouchers can access and, in many cases, this may be more appropriate.

We try and make sure that this list is correct at the day of publishing, we will be updating some info from individual foodbanks as it comes in, but PLEASE always get the latest information from that foodbank directly. Our list is not exhaustive, there are other foodbanks in local communities across Cornwall and we would urge you to support any foodbank that you know of that is local to you.

Where available we have listed details for the foodbanks:
1. Opening times / address / procedure for customers.
2. Opening times / address for donations to be dropped off to them.
3. And local donation points (supermarket collection boxes) that are operating.

Hayle Foodbank was set up in 2012 by volunteers: members of Churches Together and the Labour Party. The foodbank relies on support from the local community through donations of food items, financial gifts and volunteer time. All the supplies in the foodbank store are either donated by the local community: churches, supermarket collections, schools, individuals, and businesses, or purchased using cash donations.
The foodbank also benefits from support from Helston Foodbank. TR1 3LD, for customers in the Truro area supported by a referral agency. Please ask someone to collect your food parcel for you if you are unwell, showing coronavirus symptoms or have come into contact with anyone who has. We are making every effort to keep open, but also to keep everyone safe. We are trying to minimise contact by having food sorting separate to distribution – please see updated info below.

We heard from the great team at Wadebridge on 16th April that the below was all correct:
IMPORTANT UPDATE: All of our Foodbank centres and drop-ins are now closed to the general public. We will be delivering foodboxes, instead of people coming to us to collect them.
Vouchers will now be issued electronically from your referrer straight to the foodbank. Make sure you give them your telephone number so we can arrange delivery! We will then contact you to arrange a safe delivery, leaving your parcel outside your home. We are unable to bring it inside for you, sorry!
All sites, including our main Wadebridge hub, will not be open to the public. If you wish to make a food donation, please leave this in one of our supermarket collection boxes, or there will be a trolley outside our Wadebridge hub. If you need access to the Foodbank to deliver a large donation, please telephone 01208 815374 first.
