

8th - 14th June 2019
World Oceans Day

WORLD OCEANS DAY CELEBRATION

Saturday 8th drop-in 10am-4pm: information and interactive displays for all ages

WORSHIP led by Rev Alistair Sharp

Sunday 9th 10am: with Scripture, Music and Art inspired by God's Ocean World

THE SEA AROUND US:

circular walk between Polzeath and the Rumps

Monday 10th 2-4pm: with local marine naturalist Dr Mike Kent

"MARINE PLASTICS:

why are they such a pain and what can we do about them?"

Tuesday 11th 2pm: beach activity led by Polzeath Marine Conservation Group

"SONGS FROM THE SEA"

Wednesday 12th 7pm: with Brother Sea, Figurehead, and Neal and Gill Jolly

"CLIMATE CHANGE AND THE WORLD OCEAN"

Thursday 13th 7pm: by Dr Matt Frost, Deputy Director and Head of Policy and Knowledge Exchange, Marine Biological Association

SUSTAINABLE FISH INFORMATION DAY

Friday 14th drop-in 10am-4pm: find out about sustainable Cornish seafood

all events are FREE and meet at Tubestation Cafe
more information at tubestation.org

