What to expect during this retreat

There will be five walking days, each visiting a different part of the Cornish Celtic Way. Revd Nigel Marns will lead the guided walks and our driver will take you to the start and pick you up at the end of each day's walk. You can expect to cover around 6-8 miles per day over terrain which includes stunning and sometimes steep coastal walks, taking in churches, holy wells and other special places along the way. Evenings will be relaxed and informal, and include an optional short act of worship with reflections on Celtic saints.

Retreat at Epiphany House

Smaller than some retreat centres with just 12 guest bedrooms, Epiphany House is an historic, comfortable and peaceful house set in lovely gardens. Each bedroom has a hand basin and is close to bathroom facilities (bathrobes are provided). Our catering team enjoy a well-deserved reputation for good food and all meals are provided, including a packed lunch for walking days.

Arrival & departure

The retreat will begin at 4pm on Monday 2nd September and will conclude on Sunday 8th September after breakfast. The house has plenty of free parking and is easily accessible from Truro city centre and the railway station.

Booking

The cost of the retreat is £525. We need a minimum number of bookings to make this retreat viable—please get in touch to reserve your place and we will contact you to confirm bookings and arrange deposits once we have enough people to run this retreat.

We cater for vegetarians and will do our best to cater for medically essential dietary requirements such as nut, dairy, wheat and gluten allergies. Please ensure you inform us of special dietary or mobility needs when you book.
