

Project Manager (Homelessness Prevention) Cornwall

Salary: £27,783 per annum pro rata

Working Hours: 35 hours per week

Details: 3 years fixed term contract

Benefits: 25 days annual leave + bank holidays; a contributory pension scheme; an employee assistance programme

Job Summary:

As Project Manager you will be key in providing support, expertise and opportunities to develop local prevention services. You will implement our Mission Statement and spiritual ministry and ensure there is active Christian pastoral support for everyone involved in this homelessness service.

Key Responsibilities

- Work alongside the existing Cornish corps (churches) and community services, directing intervention strategies
- Ensure there is liaison with Corps, other local churches and a range of faith groups
- Network with, complement and strengthen existing statutory and third sector homelessness provision, and seek out new pathways and services for those that need it

The successful candidate(s) will be able to demonstrate:

- That you are a committed Christian
- A strong understanding of homelessness legislation, welfare reform and wider benefit issues together with a working knowledge of the Homelessness Reduction Act 2017
- Self-motivation, working alone and also with a team of volunteers
- Excellent case management, negotiation and communication skills, with the ability to network and work effectively with relevant agencies
- That you have a full driving licence, as there will be significant travel throughout the county

Appointment subject to satisfactory references, proof of right to work within the UK and an enhanced DBS

For further details and to apply please visit The Salvation Army's website:

<http://www.salvationarmy.org.uk/jobs>

Closing date: 9th February 2020
Interview date: 20th February 2020

CVs will not be accepted
Promoting equality in the workplace

