New trustees for Caritas

CSAN is pleased to announce that Archbishop Malcolm McMahon (Liverpool) has been appointed the new Chair of CSAN. In addition to this, we also welcome Bishop Paul Hendricks (Archdiocese of Southwark), Sir John Battle (former MP for Leeds West), and Lisa Lilley (Caritas Salford).

Archbishop Malcolm writes:

I am of that generation of Catholics that was formed in gospel-based social action by such movements as the Young Christian Workers and, in my case the Young Christian Students, so it is an immense privilege to be the new Chair of the CSAN Trustees which seeks to support its member organisations in making the teaching of Jesus visible today.
