Hello and Welcome!

A very happy Eastertide to you.

Wishing you a holy and happy May, in this month dedicated to Our Blessed Mother.

If you are inspired from anything you've read in this month's newsletter, please do get in touch with us at newsletter@csan.org.uk. We would love to hear from you!

From all of us at CSAN, thank you for your continued support.

Journeying Together: CSAN Aspiring Leaders

At the beginning of last week, Cohort 2 of the CSAN Aspiring Leaders programme met once again for their residential at the Royal Foundation of St Katherine in London. This time, we focused on the interpersonal realm of leadership.

Tackling Modern Slavery in Poole

Aliya, our Caritas Migration Officer, and Raymond, our CEO, visited Poole earlier this week for the Caritas Plymouth, event 'Tackling Modern Slavery'. The event sought to help identify the signs of modern slavery. Plymouth hosted a speaker from - another CSAN member - the Medaille Trust, and Neville from the Gangmasters and Labour Abuse Authority.

Doing Justice on Dignity in Work

As we celebrate the feast of St Joseph the Worker - and mark International Labour Day - we explore (arguably) the best-known feature of Catholic Social Teaching: dignity. But what does it mean to “do justice” in work and deliver it in practice? Ben Ryan from Medaille Trust reflects.
