GOOD FRIDAY WALK OF WITNESS

3rd April 2026, 9.30am for 10am

All Saints Church, Killigrew St, Falmouth

All are welcome to join Falmouth and Penryn Churches Together for our annual Good Friday Walk of Witness.

Gather at All Saints Church, top of Killigrew St, from 9.30am, for refreshments and a prayer and blessing before setting out at 10am for the Walk of Witness (nb not 10.30 as initially advertised).

The Walk will proceed via St Mary's RC Church, Salvation Army Church and The Moor, ending at King Charles the Martyr Church for a short service. The 'witnesses' stop outside churches en route to receive Bible readings, reflections and prayers and 'follow' the journey that Jesus took from his arrest to his death on the cross.

All are welcome to walk the whole route or join/leave at any point. Hot Cross Buns will be distributed on The Moor.

Refreshments served after the Walk at King Charles The Martyr Church Hall.

Please spread the word and bring your friends!
