FALMOUTH WALKING CARNIVAL, SAT 5 AUG

FALMOUTH TALL SHIPS 2023 : 15-18 AUGUST

Join The Garden Preschool, Pebbles, Growbaby Falmouth, Little Sparks and Squidlets as we take part in the Carnival under the theme 'What a Wonderful World'.

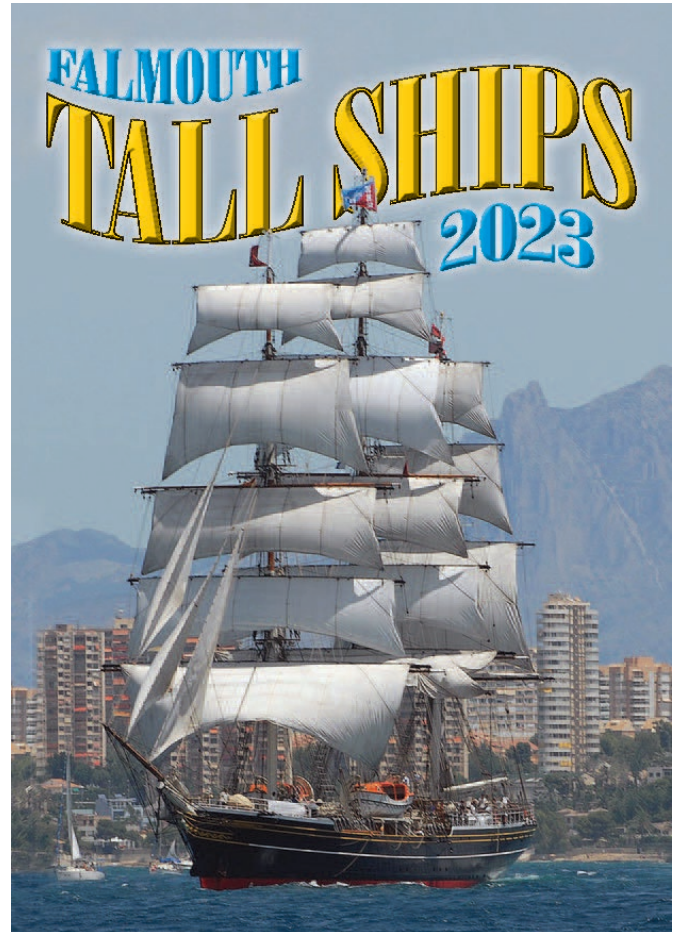

We invite children and adults to dress up as animals/flowers/rainbows/trees, anything that celebrates the beauty of our world. To wave flags, streamers, blow bubbles and play musical instruments as we walk through Falmouth Town.

From 5.15pm - Meet at Emmanuel Baptist Church where we will serve light refreshments and have face painting available for those that would like it. We will also have a limited amount of costumes/accessories for you to borrow should you not have anything suitable.

6pm - Leave EBC to walk down to Falmouth Rugby Club where we will gather with other groups before the Carnival starts at 6.30pm.

We will then walk back up to EBC for you to collect your personal items.

It would be great to have an idea of numbers so if you know that you would like to join us please email thegardenfalmouth@gmail.com.

In conjunction with Falmouth & Penryn Churches Together, Marten Holmes from OAC Ministries and colleagues from GNE (Good News for Everyone, formerly The Gideons) will be co-ordinating a Tall Ships outreach to visitors and mariners in Falmouth.

Please pray for this outreach.

Marten writes:

This is the first time the Tall Ships have visited Falmouth since 2014 when I joined a team at the outreach. Sadly my 2 fellow evangelists who organised the previous outreach, Alan Offord and Phil Misselbrook, have gone to be with the Lord. In the absence of anyone from Falmouth to head up the outreach I am leading street teams at the event.

Falmouth sees a massive influx of visitors so we will have a team on the dockside giving out a specially produced gospel leaflet to those queuing to visit the ships.

We have 5000 leaflets to give away in 4 days so please pray for decent weather and for energy for the team

We will also have a team from Good News for Everyone (formerly Gideon's) who will be approaching the ships and trying to get permission to offer the crews a special edition of the New Testament.

Please pray for favour on them as they try to get permission to go onboard.

We've been blessed with a couple of gifts to pay towards both of these events but please pray that the books will balance at the end.

During the event, King Charles the Martyr Church and Falmouth Methodist Church will be providing cream teas at Fairwinds Community Hub, 33 Church St, on Wed 16 Aug, and Emmanuel Baptist Church will be offering refreshments outside their church prior to the Parade of Sail on Fri 18 Aug.

FPCT INTERIM ARRANGEMENTS

The FPCT AGM was held at Highway Church on 19 July, preceded by an outstanding meal in Highway's new Dwell Café (opening to the public in September) – this was much enjoyed by all! The meeting itself began with a presentation by Christian Aid's new interim Devon and Cornwall rep, Amanda Evans, who is replacing Katrine Musgrave for a year while Katrine is on secondment to another part of Christian Aid. Amanda is very familiar to us in FPCT as former priest-in-charge of Mylor and St Gluvias, so it was great to catch up with her in her new role. Please pray for her and Christian Aid as they continue to respond to many needs across the globe.

As no nominations for the vacant posts of Chair and Secretary were received at the AGM, a special meeting to discuss the appropriate way forward will be held in September. Meanwhile, if you have suggestions on how you would like to see FPCT operate in future, please email fpctcontact@gmail.com – all ideas gratefully received!
