Happy New Year everyone!

FPCT has several things lined up for the month of January, most of them during the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity (18-25 January 2024), which with the state of the world at the moment is so important. There will be an opportunity to worship together throughout the week – see the details below.

The other event we want to let you know about is the invitation to meet with Church Leaders from across Falmouth and Penryn. This will take place as part of the Week of Prayer on WEDNESDAY 24 JANUARY at 7.00pm at the home of Jan Winslade, St Ruan, Tresahar Road, Falmouth, TR11 4EE.

NB – Falmouth & Penryn Churches Together lay members are providing the buffet supper! Please let Jan know if you could bring a plate of either savoury or sweet finger food to share (01326 317750).

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity is followed by a major event at Bodmin on Sat 27th January ‘Becoming Better Together’, at which all Christians in Cornwall are invited to sign a new Covenant re-dedicating ourselves to working better together in Christ’s service – more details below. Do come if you possibly can – and if you can’t make it do read and, if you wish, sign the new Covenant, which you can do online or by post, or at various meetings in future. It’s a great reminder of what ecumenism is all about and what we are called upon to do.

Looking forward to working ‘better together’ for the Kingdom in 2024!

Blessings,
Euan and Jan

CHURCHES TOGETHER IN CORNWALL CHURCH LEADERS AND MEMBERS' COVENANT 27TH JANUARY 2024

As Leaders and Members of Christian Churches, Groups and Communities in Cornwall and the Isles of Scilly:

We give thanks to God for the way in which Christians from different traditions have grown together - through worshipping and serving, fellowship and learning, sharing both gifts and differences in love.

We give thanks for the role of Churches Together in Cornwall, and all of the Churches and Christians Together groups, as we grow positive relationships where unity can increase.

We lament that there are still issues which divide us and we repent that we damage the Body of Christ, weakening our witness to communities in Cornwall.

We rejoice in the diversity of our traditions that enrich us all, as we journey together.

We celebrate the heritage of Cornwall which we share in our holy places, our welcome to one and all, and renewed tradition of pilgrimage.

We commit to share our gifts freely, and value each other's treasures, as we learn and grow in Christ. Together we will proclaim the Good News through evangelisation and mission as we seek to deepen local relationships.

We commit to working for God's kingdom through better understanding and closer co-operation.

Together we will serve the people of Cornwall through positive social action and work for climate justice, caring equally for our common home and those who experience disadvantage.

We re-dedicate ourselves and our churches to working towards the fullness of unity for which Christ prayed, through the power of the Holy Spirit and to the praise and glory of God.
