SERVICE OF REFLECTION FOR PEOPLE AFFECTED BY SUICIDE

Sunday 13th September, 2-3pm

Truro Cathedral

This service provides an opportunity for all those affected by suicide to come together in a safe and supportive space to remember those they have lost. All are welcome – of all faiths or none – to this special event. Held on the closest weekend to World Suicide Prevention Day, under the shared umbrella of “Time Together” with a similar service held on the same weekend at St Martin-in-the-Fields in London in recognition and support of a wider community of those who are bereaved.

The Mousehole Male Voice Choir will provide choral music, with a performance by the Hope Singers group for those bereaved by suicide. Rhys Wynn-Jones, also known as the Night Pianist, will also be performing Refreshments will be provided after the service in the Chapter House where there will be an opportunity to meet with those who offer support services in the community. This service is a collaboration between Truro Cathedral, Cornwall’s Suicide Liaison Service, and all agencies in Cornwall that work towards preventing suicide and offer support to those who are left behind.

Please note this service will not be live-streamed.

COFFEE MORNINGS

King Charles the Martyr Church, Falmouth

Everyone welcome at the coffee mornings at King Charles the Martyr Church (KCM) in Falmouth, which run on the fourth Tuesday of every month from 10.30 am. to 12.00 pm.

These popular community catch-ups are hosted at Fairwinds Cafe (below the church). Proceeds from the events are donated to various local and national charities.

Mothers' Union is an international women-led Christian movement with 4 million members. It was founded by Mary Sumner in 1876, and it is the largest volunteer network in the Anglican Church, active in 64 dioceses across Britain and Ireland. Our members are not all mothers, or even all women – they are female and male, single and married, parents and grandparents.

We are a diverse and inclusive community present in approximately 84 countries around the world, working together for a future where everyone has the opportunity to thrive. Our grassroots membership organises and participates in programmes on locally identified needs, such as literacy, parenting, and business skills.

“Together, by the grace of God... we can calm each other when we are afraid; strengthen one another when we are weak; and work together to raise our children to the glory of God. Unity is strength.” – Mary Sumner

Mothers' Union in Truro Diocese

In the Diocese of Truro, Mothers' Union gives annual donations to support local charities that work with families – Cornwall S.P.A.C.E

(www.actionforchildren.org.uk/how-we-can-help/our-local-services/find-our-services-near-you/cornwall-space/), Kernow Young Carers

(www.barnardos.org.uk/get-support/services/kernow-young-carers) and the men's and women's refuges, safe places for people affected by gender-based violence. Some members knit Teddy Vean, to give away to children, or tiny blankets needed by premature baby units. We support the RISE UP campaign, against domestic abuse in all its forms.

Donations

Mothers' Union (Diocese of Truro) is a registered charity number 249867. Donations from the Love in Every Stitch Banner Exhibition will go towards the work of Mothers' Union locally and overseas.
