This day continues our journey of thinking about how we weave our own story of faith into everyday life and conversation, bringing compassion into our community.

10 am - 12pm Session 1 explores how we can share our faith naturally and is led by Jo Allen, a member of the Archbishop of Canterbury's College of Evangelists.

2pm - 4pm Session 2 led by Simon Betteridge explores the use of story circles that create community, conversation and connection within our neighbourhood, facilitating Christ's compassionate voice to be heard. Simon is Head of Compassionate Community Development UHCW NHS Trust & Chaplain of Wadebridge Town FC. <https://compassionaterugby.co.uk>

7pm - 9pm Session 3: A practical session with the Archbishop of Canterbury both out amongst our community in Falmouth and manning the 'home base' @ 33 Church Street. To join ++ Justin you need to have attended at least one of the other two seminars.

Story and Witness is very much a day to be seen in conjunction with The Archbishop of Canterbury's Mission to Cornwall on the weekend 17th - 19th June 2022. The day session will be spent benefiting from the shared experience of two of ++ Justin's College of Evangelists who both work across a very wide variety of communities and will perhaps challenge some of the misconceptions of what 'evangelism' actually looks like! The evening will be spent out in Falmouth during the Sea Shanty Festival with ++ Justin, boldly engaging with our community in whatever way the Holy Spirit leads. Saturday 18th June 2022

Please let Ben know by 15th May if you are able to attend all or some of this mission.

Engaging with the prophetic gift in mission.

An introduction to contemplation & action in mission...

Listening in the Neighbourhood

2022

Equipping for mission across church tradition

The practical "listening" involves paying attention to the physical and social dimensions of our neighbourhood, and meeting and listening to stories of neighbours and people we meet.

WHAT'S GOING ON IN OUR LOCAL NEIGHBOURHOODS?

WHAT'S GOING ON THAT WE HAVE NOT NOTICED BEFORE?

WHAT'S GOD BEGINNING TO SHOW US AS WE NOTICE WHAT'S GOING ON?

ben.hudd@tmfalmouth.org
07749867947

All these sessions are open to all, and assume no prior involvement in any form of mission or outreach. They are designed to work in conjunction with your chosen church tradition in order that they be relevant to the widest spectrum of Christian spirituality. They are simply offered as a means of equipping the church for this next season. They will all have a slant towards serving the poor and marginalised, but not exclusively so.

If you can, please let Ben know you are coming, however no formal booking is required.

...it's a journey of discovery. What can you hear? What can you see? What is hidden in plain sight?

Listening in the neighbourhood is simply an opportunity to hear and see things that you've perhaps never heard or noticed before...with God. This is NOT a crash course on mission or a means of creating complex strategies...it's about dwelling in the Word and with our Community together, with our physical and spiritual eyes and ears open. It's about taking our time.....

Over four sessions (an intro session & then three subsequent meetings) we will journey with the Word in one hand and reflections on our practical fieldwork in the other. This is a contemplative practice, but perhaps not as we are used to it. It is where contemplation (dwelling in God) and action (dwelling with our community) come together to shape not in the first instance what we do (although that will come naturally), but how we are called to be with our community. That community may be where we live, the various campus' if you're a student perhaps. It may be your workplace, your street or village, even a patch of parkland where you walk your dog; that's for you to decide with God's leading. The question is simply, where are you being called to see and hear?

Together at each session we will ask questions like...what is surprising, inspiring, challenging, distinctive...changing? What are the signs of hope, belonging, beauty and goodness? Are there signs of stress, exclusion, despair & neglect? Who is the alien...who is our neighbour?

Between sessions we will undertake practical listening exercises in our chosen neighbourhood, both alone and with others (they can either be another participant or someone who is not part of the group), and then at each meeting we will reflect back together on what we heard...from God and our community. Where have we noticed God working? What has been hidden in plain sight perhaps in a community that you have lived in for years. Things are always changing.

Most importantly, these sessions have been specifically tailored to embrace the diversity of church traditions represented within the Church of England, simply reflecting all of our desire together to see our community encounter God's love afresh, As One.

The initial meeting will be at 7:00 pm at KCM (downstairs in Huddle) on Thursday 28th April, with the subsequent meeting the following week at 7:00pm on 5th May. We will then decide together what the final two dates will be. We will start from 7pm with tea/ coffee and cake, beginning the more structured time promptly at 7:30 pm, finishing at 9 pm sharp.

Booking? Please email Ben to let him know you are planning to join in.

Cost? Free...but you are also free to make a contribution as you feel led.

Who? Anyone and everyone...you could come on your own, or as a group.

How long? There will be four sessions in total

Listening in the Neighbourhood's first session will be led by Simon Betteridge and will focus upon how we can use story circles to listen to our community and weave our faith into conversation. During this session we will ask, who is our Neighbour in our own contexts? Where is God calling us to Look and Listen?

The subsequent sessions will be led by Ben Hudd and will take the form of a contemplative reflection of what we have seen and heard during our times of listening in the community, taking time to reflect upon what God may be showing us.

28th April, 5th May, remainder tbc..

An introduction to missional community....

Placing Community @ The Heart of Mission

2022

Equipping for mission across church tradition

WHAT IS A MISSIONAL COMMUNITY?

WHAT SHAPE MAY THAT TAKE IN MY CONTEXT?

WHAT'S GOD BEGINNING AMONGST US?

WHERE DO I START?

ben.hudd@tmfalmouth.org

This is a day that sets time aside to think and dream about mission, and to explore the concept of missional community and how they can be a way of setting sail on mission, in connection and conversation with our own particular church tradition.

We will explore how all of us have a role in building and shaping Christ-centred community, a place to which God adds to our numbers, with plenty of opportunity to share hearts, visions, hopes and dreams, whilst wrestling with the practicalities that we face with any missional endeavour.

Saturday 25th June, 10 am - 3 pm @ Huddle (below KCM Falmouth)
Please bring a packed lunch; tea & coffee provided all day for £1. Please book by emailing Ben

Placing Community @ The Heart of Mission will take the form of prayer, listening to each other and a few fun exercises from which space we will tease out our 'next steps' for mission in our communities. This session will be led by Ben Hudd who has been involved in both leading and mentoring a wide variety of forms of missional community over the last fifteen years both in the workplace, at schools, youth communities, social enterprises and all those who are passionate about mission, whatever their age!
