

"Pilgrims are persons in motion passing through territories that are not their own. Seeking something we might call 'contemplation' or perhaps the word 'clarity' would do as well. A goal to which the Spirit's compass points the way."

Brother Pedro of Coizé

Tues 8th June (12 miles)

Newquay Fistral Beach to Perranporth

(St Carantoc Church at Crantock, Holy well at Holywell, St Cubert's Church, St Piran's Oratory, Celtic Cross)

Wed 9th June (9 miles)

Perranporth to Porthtowan

(Coastal Path, Ruins of Wheal Coates Mine)

Thurs 10th June (9 miles)

Porthtowan to Gwithian

(Coastal Path, St Cothian's Church at Gwithian)

Fri 11th June (8 miles)

Gwithian to Carbis Bay

(Coastal path, St Uny's Church at Lelant)

Key

- ⛪ Church
- ⊕ Oratory
- ⚔ Celtic Cross
- ★ Place of Interest
- ▲ Camping

JOIN US:

All or part of the way

All Welcome

christianclimateaction@gmail.com

<https://christianclimateaction.org>

Route is based on a section of:

Cornish Celtic Way

www.cornishcelticway.co.uk

CHRISTIAN CLIMATE ACTION