GOOD NEWS

- RECYCLING REVOLUTION
Local authorities currently set their own rules on recycling. Ministers have now set out plans to ensure all councils collect the same core types of recycling. Items refused by some councils will soon be eligible to be included in all household recycling. From 2023 households will also get weekly food collections with free compostable caddy liners supplied. More recycling waste will be processed locally rather than being shipped to countries like Malaysia.
- FALMOUTH AND PENRYN WELCOMES REFUGEES
Application to resettle a second family from Syria has been approved. A house fully furnished is ready. 30 new volunteers have been recruited to help with the second family.

FOR REFLECTION AND PRAYER

- FEEDING FAMILIES IN CORNWALL
A report by Cornwall's Director of Public Health states that the Corona Virus pandemic has highlighted that Food Insecurity is a critical and long-term issue for people living in Cornwall. A Food Insecurity Group has been set up and a grant system will provide support to Community food Groups.
- VACCINE ROLL OUT WORLDWIDE
At the current pace of vaccine production and distribution people in much of the world may not be vaccinated until at least 2024, states the Peoples Vaccination Alliance.

ACTION FOR THE WEEK

- FOCUS ON THE G7 TALKS
Pray that justice will prevail, and steps be taken to highlight the worldwide implications of Climate Change and harmonious decisions taken to prioritize ACTION on Climate in this regard.
