TALL SHIPS

Falmouth will be hosting the International Tall Ships race in 2023, a wonderful event, in which young cadets from different countries learn how to sail a Tall Ship with a myriad of sails, which requires courage to negotiate climbing up the sails, discipline and team work.

FAIR TRADE

So many people petitioned their MPs, 614 MPs in all, that action was taken by MPs to lobby Ministers urging that the UK keeps its pledge to donate £14 billion help the poorest countries most affected by climate change.

GLEANNING IN CORNWALL

Hollie Whitelaw started the Gleaning movement here in Cornwall, and food gleaned after harvesting was donated to foodbanks.

This has now taken off in a big way and is happening beyond the confines of Cornwall.

RODDA'S CREAMERY the world famous producer of Cornish Clotted Cream, is looking to use geothermal energy from the hard rocks in the Scorrier area where the current geothermal research project is gaining momentum with very promising results.

FOR REFLECTION, ACTION & PRAYER

PRAYER FOR OUR COUNTRY with regard to our Parliamentary Ethics and Values, Change of Prime Minister, Cabinet and new Tory Party Leader.

SENDING REFUGEES AND ASYLUM SEEKERS TO RWANDA

The Divisional Court has granted the application for an adjournment of the Rwanda case until September.

Go to "Help #StopRwanda" for details of how together we can show that Britain wants a more compassionate way to treat refugees.

OUR CARITAS SPONSORED DAY ON OCTOBER 1ST, "THE CRY OF THE EARTH", to take place here in Falmouth as a finale to the SEASON OF CREATION.

Initial planning has started with great ideas and enthusiasm from our J and P group.

It will be an ecumenical, interactive, lively and enjoyable day with a well known keynote speaker and is open to people all of all faiths and none.

BOOK THE DATE FOR YOUR DIARY and watch this space.
