TWO JUBILEES

The National Trust is celebrating its Diamond Jubilee this year and the Cornwall Wildlife Trust celebrates its Golden Jubilee. Both have done trojan work in conservation and restoring the nation's treasure.

GREEN ENERGY MILESTONES

They don't call California a sunshine state for nothing. The State Grid was maintained with 99.9 % green energy for the first time. In Portugal, Europe's largest floating solar farm was towed to its moorings in a reservoir the size of 4 football pitches.

THE ROYAL CORNWALL SHOW

One of Cornwall's most popular events took place again last week after two years absence due to Covid, and gave achievement and enjoyment to the thousands who attended.

FOR REFLECTION & PRAYER

RWANDA...THE FIRST FLIGHT FOR ASYLUM SEEKERS AND REFUGEES BEING DEPORTED

leaves on 14th June, and those going have been given details. The organisation "Freedom from Torture" is leading a public campaign on social media, see their website.

NIGERIA MASSACRE ON PENTECOST SUNDAY

60 people including children were killed in Ondo state when unknown assailants burst their way into a Catholic church during Mass. The bishop's statement released after the shooting said "Let us remain calm and law abiding and pray for peace and to our community some normality to return.

ACTION FOR THE WEEK

REFUGEE WEEK starts on June 20th. May we offer some practical help to refugees and to the organisations helping them.

Look up the web sites of Freedom From Torture and other refugee agencies and spend some time in thought and prayer as to what actions we may take.
