

Justice & Peace Weekly Bulletin : 15 Sep 2021

Please send any comments or items for next week's news to
Mary Bradley, 01326 312 768, mary@corisande.plus.com

GOOD NEWS

- CLIMATE CHANGE
 - The vast number of groups and individuals globally, nationally and locally who are taking action with regard to Climate Change and Environmental Degradation.
 - The Big Green Week happening now in Britain.
 - The Guardians of the Forest in the Amazon and the local experts who are campaigning with the indigenous to preserve their lands.
 - The Big Green Event at our local Princess Pavilion this Sunday
- THE "PROMS"
 - There was a rousing last night of the Proms last Sunday, good to see so many people enjoying the finale.
 - It is important during these troubled times to have music and the Arts to enable us to have beautiful and enjoyable experiences and appreciate the gifts and talent of others.
- DEDICATION , COURAGE AND ENDURANCE
 - The courage, endurance and dedication of all those in our NHS, Care Homes and those relatives, friends and others looking after people in their own homes.
 - We have much to be thankful in this country, whereas many countries in the world have little, inadequate or no healthcare services.

FOR REFLECTION AND PRAYER

- YEMEN
 - With six years of conflict, the people in the Yemen are facing food insecurity, and many may die from hunger.
- THE INTERNATIONAL ARMS TRADE FAIR IN LONDON. DEFENCE, SECURITY EPQUIPMENT INTERNATIONAL EVENT 6-17 September
 - This takes place in London every two years, with 1700 companies selling guns, bombs, fighter jets, warships to the 36,000 who attend to buy equipment. Drones and other tools of repression are also for sale to police and state agencies.
 - CAAT(Campaigning Against The Arms Trade) have a week of action. See their website.
- 20 YEARS SINCE 9/11
 - Saturday marked the 20th anniversary of 9/11.
 - In the tangled mess after the event, two steel girders were found in the shape of a cross. This cross was the first item to be put in the 9/11 Museum, opened in 2011 in New York, symbolising that good will overcome Evil and Life overcome Death.

ACTIONS OF THE WEEK

- Find out the Big Green Week happenings in your area and take part.
- Pray for peace and especially for the perpetrators of terrorism.
- Identify one way in which you might alter your daily lifestyle to live in a more sustainable way, e.g. source two meals from local producers this week.