CHRIST IS RISEN ALLELUIA, ALLELUIA, ALLELUIA.

We are an Easter People, with joy and hope in our hearts, knowing that the risen Christ is with us anew; and sends us out on mission to bring his hope, joy and love to all whom we meet, especially those on the margins of our society.

TRISSI FAMILY FROM SYRIA

Nasser and his family have now been granted Asylum. They have found a house in Plymouth not far from where they are now and will be moving in soon. The son is at Uni, and the twins doing well at Plymouth Grammar School, they hope the youngest will join her sisters there.

Their oldest daughter, now a dentist, who was left to finish her studies in Syria will they hope also be granted asylum.

Nasser's wife Asma is attending English classes.

Nasser (an entomologist) has a job at Exeter Uni, which is good but he has an expensive hour's travel each day.

We are so delighted for them. They have very much appreciated our support and friendship. I hope to see them soon.
