ABOUT NEWS and keeping a balance:

- “With everything being about Ukraine, there is a worry that other things will be missed” (Paul Southgate)
- “Put the internet back in the basement. This should be our aspiration with the news. Check in on it a couple of times a day. Take any relevant action you can. Then step away from it.” (David Cain)

PETS HAVE LARGE CARBON PAWPRINTS

- About a fifth of the meat produced globally is consumed by pets. What if it was grown in labs? This is about to happen in the UK shortly.

SIGN LANGUAGE

- The House of lords has backed a Bill giving it legal recognition. Peers also heard that the Government has started drawing plans for a GCSE in the language.

FOR REFLECTION & PRAYER

PRAYER FOR UKRAINE and other wars of conflict across the world.
