Join us at the Restore Nature Now march

Saturday 22nd June, central London

Creation Cries Out eccumenical service: 11am, Catholic Church of the Immaculate Conception, 114 Mount St, Mayfair, London W1K 3AH. Includes children's outdoor nature-based church

March: gather between midday & 1pm, Park Lane, W1K

You are invited to join us for the biggest ever march to protect the natural world and tackle the climate emergency. CCA members will be gathering with thousands of others in London for a family-friendly, legal march to demand that UK politicians show strong domestic and global nature and climate leadership by:

1. Giving a pay-rise for nature
2. Making polluters pay
3. Delivering more space for nature
4. Putting a right to a healthy environment in law
5. Ensuring fair and effective climate action

The march is organised and supported by a wide range of groups including the RSPB, The Wildlife Trusts, The Climate Coalition, WWF-UK, National Trust, and Extinction Rebellion.

Join the Creation Cries Out service

Ahead of the march, join us to pray, worship and lament in the context of biodiversity decline and climate breakdown. We will also be organising children's church in the gardens of the church.

Organised by A Rocha UK, Christian Climate Action, Green Christian, Operation Noah and other groups.

*In the event that numbers inside exceed the capacity of the church, priority will be given to those who have registered.

Please join with us in speaking out for Creation. If you'd like to march with other Christians then attending the service at 11am will be the best way to find them. Bring your CCA t-shirt if you have one. On the march itself, there will be performance art, sculptures, singing and more to entertain you on the way. The march will end with a rally in Parliament Square at around 2:30pm with well-known names and faces speaking to marchers about the political and policy changes we need to see to finally turn the tide for the environment.

If you would like to volunteer to steward or help on the day, please email us at christianclimateaction@gmail.com community still sees climate and ecological breakdown as a side issue, or, worse, not really an issue at all? This is for you – or rather your church community.

In this session, CCA's Paul will preview his upcoming publication 'Jesus Died to Save the Planet' - a collaboration with the London Institute for Contemporary Christianity - which locates the flourishing of the whole earth as central to the mission of God, and action by us for its flourishing as simply aligning ourselves with God's mission. He will conclude with three strategic do-able actions for church communities.

8:30pm

An online workshop session exploring different change-making strategies and which of those strategies are good for what. Strategies we will look at include dilemma actions, boycotting, mass actions and occupying. We will consider examples of when these different strategies have worked and reflect on why they worked. Bring your own examples of what has worked to add to the conversation.
