

From: chiefexecutive@cornwallfoundation.com
To: ctcinfohub@gmail.com
Subject: News from Cornwall Community Foundation
Date: 17 July 2023 14:08:30

This year marks 20 years of impactful funding

As we celebrate our 20th anniversary, we also publish our 2023 Impact Report which reflects back on two decades of incredible growth, support, and historic impact across Cornwall and the Isles of Scilly.

Inside this year's report you will find just a few of the hundreds of incredible stories and people on the receiving end of CCF's grant awarding, which totalled over £2.3m for 2022 alone. Read it here.

The Great Garden's Great Art Auction raises £5,350 for CCF

On June 20th, The Great Gardens of Cornwall hosted The Great Art Auction, at the Lemon Street Market in Truro. The walls were lined with artwork, each piece inspired by one of Cornwall's great gardens. The artists responsible for creating such wonderful pieces were: Lizzie Black; Andrew Tozer; Rob Rimmington; Nicky Walker; Mary Jago; Kate Cambridge; Lorna Tremayne; Susan Nathan; and Carol O'Toole.

The bidding was a lively affair and with thanks to the fantastic auctioneers, Edward Buckland Ltd, the event raised over £5,000. Read more.

News from Cornwall Community Foundation Business Club

Thank you, and welcome to new members who have joined our Business Club this quarter, video production agency Bull & Wolf and Cornish radio station Rewind Radio. The CCF Business Club is a group of like-minded local businesses who have joined together to support their local communities.

Membership fees are held in the Business Club Fund and the group meet twice annually to review applications and distribute grants. We also host quarterly breakfasts and other events so if you would like to learn more click here.

Spread the word - applications close on 31st July

The Lord Lieutenant's Fund

The aim of this fund is to financially support our rising young stars to achieve their goals in sports, music or dance. Please share with anyone who you think could benefit from this funding. Aged 14-23. Find out more and apply.

FALMOUTH UNIVERSITY SEASALT CORNWALL

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL ENGLAND

Creative Writing Awards

The aim of this award is to support and encourage young writers in Cornwall and the Isles of Scilly aged 16-23. The award will be a mix of both mentoring with an established writer based in Cornwall, and a cash award of up to £1,000 together with £150 worth of books. Please spread the word to all budding young writers. Find out more and apply.

And this is the reason why.. with Joe Turnbull

CCF Trustee, Joe Turnbull, is founder of Bull & Wolf, one of the fastest-growing video agencies in the South West and has recently been recognised in Cornwall Chamber of Commerce's 30 under 30. In this 'And this is the reason why..' feature, Joe tells us what he thinks is Cornwall's most pressing issue and why Cornwall is such a special place to live and work.

Read what Joe had to say.

Daiman & Francis get stuck in at a visit to WILD Young Parents Project

CCF Trustee, Daiman Baker, and Grants Officer, Francis Baring, visit WILD Young Parents at their allotment in Camborne. WILD Young Parents was originally set up to provide support for young mothers under the age of 19. Since its establishment in 1992, WILD has extended its support to fathers, and engages with 300 families across Cornwall. Francis tells us about their visit.

Read it here.

Amy Buzza-Blackwell heads back to her old school to lead a Philanthropy workshop to the next generation

Our Philanthropy Director, Amy Buzza-Blackwell, was invited back to Truro School where she was once a pupil herself, to lead a philanthropy workshop with the students. This workshop involved discussions around climate change, poverty, dementia care, and the many other issues facing the Cornish community. Read More.

HOW YOUR DONATIONS HELP

Hugs Foundation receives funding to support the well-being of young people

Thanks to the grant of £4,442 from The Karenza Fund, the Hugs Foundation has been able to expand its “Improving Wellbeing Beyond Covid” project delivering well-being interventions for children and young people aged between 4 and 18.

Situated near Bodmin, in one of the 10% most deprived areas in England, the ‘Hugs community’ supports a range of complex needs including; social, emotional, physical and mental ill health, trauma, abuse, reduced or non-school attendance, SEND, social isolation, self-harm and suicide ideation.

Read More.

Leaving a gift in your will

Leaving a gift to Cornwall Community Foundation in your will is an incredible way to make a lasting impact in your community. There are different ways you can do this, so if this is something you would be interested in learning more about, please contact our Development Director, Tamara Sherston-Baker on 01566 779333 or tamara@cornwallfoundation.com.

Thank you to our donors and supporters who make it possible for us to help Cornish communities.
Please follow this link for more information about how you can help.
For stories about the difference the Foundation makes for communities and people in Cornwall, click here.

Positive change for one and all

Privacy notice

Unsubscribe

Cornwall Community Foundation
Suite 1, Sheers Barton, Lawhitton, Launceston, Cornwall, PL15 9NJ
Charity number 1099977

