An evening to celebrate our out of county supporters

Last week we welcomed Cornwall Club members, Trustees, Fundholders and out of county supporters of CCF to a celebratory drinks party at the Fishmonger's Hall in London.

This event was a way to thank our Cornwall Club members, whose membership donations alone have exceeded £850,000 over the past decade. These gifts have enabled us to help thousands of community groups and organisations across Cornwall and the Isles of Scilly. Read more.

Our Poverty Hurts appeal reaches £1 million in donations

Our Poverty Hurts campaign has reached £1 million in donations and all of those donations have now been allocated in grants to groups across the Duchy. Thank you to everyone for their generous donations. The need in the county for funding to address the cost-of-living crisis shows no sign of abating with new applications for support received every week. Read more and donate.

Creative Writing Award recipients celebrated

On Monday evening we applauded eight incredible young wordsmiths from

Cornwall who have won a year's worth of invaluable mentorship with established Cornish authors, thanks to the Young & Talented Cornwall Creative Writing Award. They were presented with their awards by Lord Lieutenant Colonel Edward Bolitho OBE and award curator, Philip Marsden, at The Poly in Falmouth. Read more.

HOW YOUR DONATIONS HELP:

A £5,000 grant has enabled Lambeage Hall to install modern facilities resulting in increased bookings

Lambeage Hall is situated right on the coast in the village of Coverack. It's sea views make it the perfect spot to hold weddings, parties and community events. Their old toilet facilities, which were situated in the entrance foyer, were old fashioned and unhygienic and put off prospective business from hiring the hall.

Thanks to the recent funding from the Goonhilly Wind Farm Fund they can now offer their guests, modern, spacious facilities complete with baby changing and wheelchair accessible. This has boosted business and raised community morale. Read more.

Positive change for one and all
