NATIONAL SPORTS SUNDAY

14 MAY 2023

Dear friend

We hope you had a great Easter and that as well as celebrating Christ's resurrection, you were able to spend time with your loved ones and get some rest.

We're writing to tell you that there's just one month to go until National Sports Sunday on May 14. Research shows that more than 25 million plus of our population participates in a sports community on a weekly basis. That's not even talking about the number of people who regularly encounter parents, trainers, fans, and volunteers. All are touched by the 'power' of sport. We believe that all big spiritual movements start with prayer. Join us on National Sports Sunday to pray for the community of sports... the greatest untapped mission field in the world!

We're truly excited to have this opportunity to pray for the community of sport and to encourage those who are involved in this huge part of our society. We'd like to point you to the many resources we have available for this day. Check out our page here, and also we're delighted to announce some exciting partnerships with Ridley Hall, Sportily, Ambassadors in Football and Spirit in Sports to name a few. Ridley Hall is a theological college provider of courses in Sports Ministry and Sports Chaplaincy and for National Sports Sunday, Ridley Hall will also be producing resources and lectionary material for the day - we're so delighted to be announcing these great Kingdom partnerships.

Please let us know how you plan to celebrate and participate in National Sports Sunday – and thank you for remembering the community of sport on May 14.

Together, we can achieve so much!

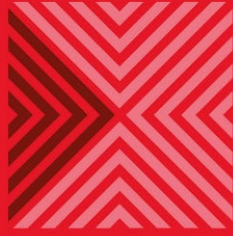

Every Blessing,

Warren Evans,

CEO Sports Chaplaincy
