

Our 7th ‘Folk-carol’ Concert

In celebration of “Twelfth Night” and in aid of refugees.

PAUL CHURCH (TR19 6TY)

We shall be performing our usual mix of moving and beautiful Christmas and New Year music from medieval times to the present day – with mulled wine and mince pies. Do feel free to fling on a bonnet and waistcoat and dress up ‘Poldark style’.

The concert is FREE but a collection (cash or card) will be taken for the chosen charity.

Parking: in the football ground nearby. Disabled parking is in the pub car park opposite the church.
