

THE FRIENDS OF TRURO CATHEDRAL

SATURDAY 13 JANUARY 2024

The Friends of Truro Cathedral invite you to join them for a concert, in the Chapter House of the Cathedral, when a group of popular local singers, known as Amici Voci will perform a variety of songs. The programme will include music of a variety of styles; from Handel, Mozart and Faure to modern composers Morten Lauridsen, John Rutter and David Ogden and finally to music from Josh Groban and Billy Joel. The Friends hope this concert will have something for everyone but most of all that you enjoy your time with us. Doors will open at 6.45pm for drinks and light refreshments prior to the commencement of the concert at 7.30pm.

Background Information:

AMICI VOICI began around 16 years ago started by Shirley Tyack as MD and Lesley Rogers. It was formed just for the fun of a group of friends to sing together. They have sung at garden parties, many charity concerts in local chapels, The Hall for Cornwall and Epiphany House as well as several weddings. Their current MD Clive Brown took on the baton from Shirley when she decided to stand down and has continued to make sure they primarily have fun in rehearsals and concerts but all the time striving, as they did with Shirley, to be the best they can be.

Tickets £12.50 (to include a drink and nibbles) can be purchased:
