A cultural moment

Dear CTC

Welcome to this month's e-news.

First up, if you missed the Perspective Conference then catch Mike Royal and Amy Orr-Ewing's amazing talks online find out more below.

They looked at our current cultural moment and how to be bold in sharing Jesus.

Amy looked at the beginning of Acts, and it reminded me of the verse where the Sanhedrin are amazed by the boldness and courage of Peter and James.

They say they are ordinary unschooled men. Even so, the transformation they witness is the work of the Holy Spirit.

Let's renew our prayers for ourselves and others to be filled with the Holy Spirit to proclaim the good news of Jesus again.

We have a lot to look at in E-news for Christmas. Plus, don't miss out, we have an important E-shot coming to you soon.

Blessings,

Rachel

More ways to get involved

Had your Health Check?

It's not just jabs and appointment this time of year, Talking Jesus has launched an evangelism Health-Check for your local church – in an easy to use, short on-line format. The tool can be used by everyone in your church to help you find out the evangelism health of your local church.

Talking Jesus workbook also helps bring the Talking Jesus research to life, ideal to use in strategy meetings and with church teams. It's available from the Hope shop

TALKING HEALTH

Jesus to the Rescue has now launched its Christmas resources for small children and families where you are! The new all age church resources are available and suitable for Christmas family services.
