Colours Cafe & Wellbeing Centre, 15 New Bridge Street, Truro TR1 2AA
(Directly Opposite Oxfam Bookshop)

Peace-pilgrim, life-long activist, and former monk, Satish Kumar has been inspiring global change for over 50 years. Now in his 80s, Satish has devoted his life to campaigning for ecological regeneration and social justice. He is a world-renown author and international speaker, founder of The Resurgence Trust and Editor Emeritus of Resurgence & Ecologist.

Oxfam Books in Truro are delighted to have Satish speaking about his book Soil • Soul • Society, where he argues that caring for the natural environment (Soil), maintaining personal well-being (Soul) and upholding human values (Society) are the moral imperatives of our time.

The event will be facilitated by Helen Tanner, healer and peace-builder.
