

Sharing the Journey

Day Walk Special Edition, September 2022

Dear Friends

Since the last edition of Sharing the Journey there have been a few additions to our Day Walk calendar. As these are all taking place very soon, we thought a special edition was needed!

"Climb the mountains and get their good tidings. Nature's peace will flow into you as sunshine flows into trees. The winds will blow their own freshness into you, and the storms their energy, while cares will drop off like autumn leaves."

(John Muir)

Day Walks for late summer and autumn

Walking in the spirit of pilgrimage. All walks are free. Simply bring a packed lunch.

Walking into Quietness... a contemplative walk around Wells, Somerset

Sunday 11th September

Our route takes us through enchanting woodland and along beautiful bridleways to Wells Cathedral where we hear the choristers sing Evensong, before setting out for Pen Hill to watch the sun go down...

Summer in the Valley... Tintern and the Wye Valley

Saturday 17th September

A walk through the Wye Valley, beginning and ending at lovely Tintern Abbey in the Wye Valley.

Along the Way we'll see part of Offa's Dyke, discover Brockweir village with its whitewashed Moravian Chapel on the banks of the river, admire some wonderful views and listen to readings and reflections for Summer.

Walking on Dartmoor

... and a mini pilgrim-holiday!

17th and 18th September

Each walk is complete in itself as a lovely circular day walk, that you are most welcome to join. And why not join us for both walks and book your own accommodation over-night close by, as a kind of mini pilgrim-holiday? There will be an evening get-together on the 17th for those who are staying over.

Lud's Church, Hanging Rock and the Roaches

Walking in the Peak District

Friday 28th October

A walk that has everything: moorland; paths along high ridges that offer spectacular views; delightful woodland and a winding path following the course of the River Dane. In the spirit of pilgrimage, we begin with a delightful walk along the river and then climb through the woods to emerge onto high moorland. Here we will have wonderful views of the Staffordshire, Derbyshire and Cheshire countryside below. Weather and time permitting, we may have a little detour onto the Roaches before passing through Lud's Church, a deep moss-covered chasm full of history and myths, on our scenic return to Danebridge via Hangingstone.

Along our path we will listen to readings and reflections that capture the essence and rhythm of the beautiful natural world around us.

Lud's Church.

The Sandstone Trail: The Hills of Bulkeley & Bickerton
Walking through the Cheshire countryside
Tuesday 1st November

The Sandstone Trail provides some of the finest walking in Cheshire, as it follows the sandstone ridge that rises dramatically above the Cheshire Plain. It's a place of wild and rugged tranquillity, with beautiful woodland and lowland heath designated as a Site of Special Scientific Interest (SSSI) for its plants and wildlife. The trail offers stunning panoramic views spanning 9 counties and crosses the site of 'Maiden's Castle', an Iron Age Hill fort that is now a Scheduled Ancient Monument.

Readings and reflections will capture the essence of this beautiful landscape and guide us into its peace...

And here's another event, soon to happen

Lindisfarne Gospels Pilgrimage

Friend of Journeying, David Pott, is currently leading the Lindisfarne Gospels Pilgrimage in the North East of England. There is still chance to link in! All the information can be found at <https://durhamdiocese.org/the-lindisfarne-gospels-pilgrimage/>

This evening...

Friday Gathering

Each Friday at 10 p.m. (UK time) ... A time to pause and prayerfully hold in our thoughts all those connected with Journeying. We have no particular format and there's no linking over the airwaves. As always, hope you can be with us.

Peace on the Way,
The Journeying Team.
