THEATRE IN EDUCATION

PASSION PLAY

Recording our first podcast! Emily Thompson is our host and we are inviting guests to speak on topics related to our secondary education workshops to be utilised online and in the classroom. We had a rehearsal on Monday and the content was so good we're editing it and adding it to our repitoir. More info coming soon.

Preparing for Celebration Day 2024 this Saturday. There are still a few places left but if you can't make it, join our livestream here instead.

Team Blast Off are preparing for rehearsals on Tuesday ready for their three-week tour at the end of the month.

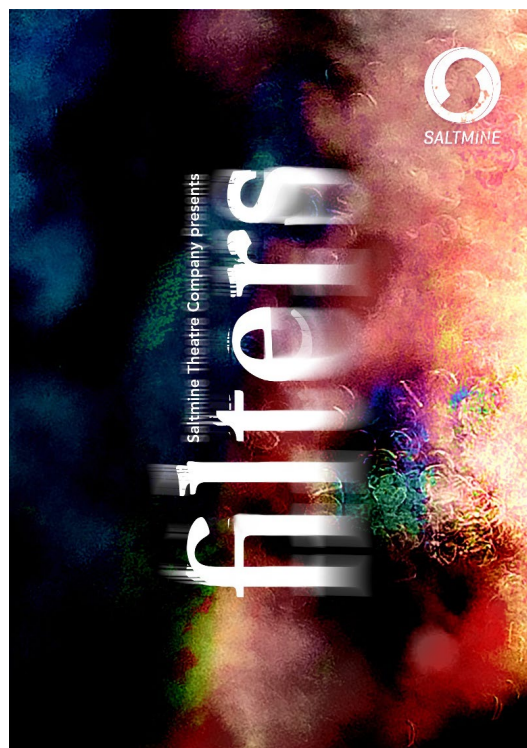

Henry, Phoebe and Suzi have been cast for this years production and workshop.

Team Filters are currently looking at workshop material before they hit the rehearsal room for the first time!

Rowmell, Jacob, Anisha, Daniel and

Hannah will tour on our first edition of Filters.

We didn't think a Passion Play was on the cards for us this year but Rachael (our CEO) always believed for one. Keep your eyes peeled for more info coming soon.

A potential filming day for the BBC in February. The Liberator and Rhyming Bible in March. Lots of funding applications and planning for Christmas 2024 already!

We're excited for the year ahead. Make sure you join us for the ride.
